What do the plans feature?

Studying in a new country is exciting, but navigating the U.S. healthcare system can feel overwhelming. Medical care in the United States is among the most expensive in the world, and unexpected illness or injury can cost thousands of dollars.

That's why Monroe University offers two international insurance options through United Healthcare "UHC" designed specifically for international students, so you can focus on your education with peace of mind, knowing care is there when you need it.

- Medical Expense Benefits
- Emergency Medical Benefits
- Emergency Medical Evacuation Benefits
- Repatriation Benefits
- Travel Assistance Services
- Telemedicine Services

Disclaimer: This summary is intended to provide an overview of benefits only and does not include all coverage details, limitations, or exclusions. It is not a contract of insurance. For complete benefit information and coverage provisions, please refer to the official plan documents. In the event of a conflict, the Certificate of Coverage and policy documents will govern.

Annual Deductible: An amount you could owe during a coverage period (usually one year) for covered health care services before your plan begins to pay. An overall deductible applies to all or almost all covered items and services.

Copay: A fixed amount (for example, $15) you pay for a covered health care service, usually when you receive the service. The amount can vary by the type of covered health care service.

Coinsurance: Your share of the costs of a covered health care service, calculated as a percentage (for example, 20%) of the allowed amount for the service. You generally pay coinsurance plus any deductibles you owe.

The 2026 - 2027 benefits listed above are a summary of the Monroe University Student Health Insurance Plan design. Additional Schedule of Medical Expense Benefits/Limitations is specified in the Overview Policy.
